THIS IS NOT JUST "SUNDAY" TO SOME

Victor M Eskew

For some, Sunday is just another day of the week. It is perhaps one of their days off during the weekend. These individuals are planning to sleep in, get a late brunch, head to the beach, do a little yard work or shopping. They may be ready to cook out and see some friends today. Perhaps a favorite sporting event is on the menu. It may be that they have to work. But, today for some is just July 22nd.

For others, this is not just Sunday. Today is a special day. They have longed for this day all week. They will arise eager to be at the activities that have been "ordered" for the day. If they had to miss, they would be sad. There would be a hole left in their hearts at the end of the day.

For these individuals, this is the Lord's Day. It is a day dedicated to the worship of God, a God who loves them dearly and has redeemed them from all iniquity. A God who has provided a heavenly hope for them after death.

These individuals would not let anything come between them and their worship time. There is nothing more important. There is nothing more fulfilling. There is nothing that satisfies them more than being in the presence of God with other faithful saints.

2. Confession (Acts 8:37; Rom. 10:9-10)
3. Baptism (1Peter 3:21; Acts 2:38; Mark 16:16; Rom. 6:3-4)
4. After the above five steps, faithful Christian living (1 Peter 2:11-12; Rev. 2:10)

This "tribe" of individuals is few in number compared to the population of the world. That thought is very sad. But, these are the saints. They are the salt of the earth. They are the light of the world. They are the ones who are truly seeking to be like the Christ.

Is today just Sunday to you? Or, is today more than Sunday? In just two or three hours we will know the answer to this question. Where you are will determine the answer. My prayer is that you are with the ones who proclaim: "This is not just another Sunday."
