PUNCTURE-PROOF

RAY FRIZZELL, JR.

Brother Marshall Keeble, the grand old evangelist used the following example to get a vital lesson across:

He said, "You know, I like some of these newfangled inventions. The puncture-proof tire is the one I like especially well. If you're driving along with ordinary tires, and a nail goes through them - whiss - you lose all the air.

But a puncture-proof tire is different. If a nail goes through it, some stuff inside runs around and stops up the hole and the air stays. You know the heart of a Christian is like this puncture-proof tire. An ordinary heart may be filled with love, but when someone does something to puncture that heart, all the love runs out and hatred and hard feelings take its place. But a punctureproof heart is different; it is filled with the spirit of Christ, and when someone through his words or actions punctures that heart, immediately the hole is stopped up tight and love stays in.”

Love is supplying kindness and banishing unkindness; giving friendship and forgiving enmity; the joy of the good, the wonder of the wise, the amazement of the world; desired by those who have no part in Christ, and precious to those who have the better part of Christ in them.

Love rules without law. Love is the master of all arts. The person who has not love in his heart and kind actions toward other people is more unlike God than the liar, the thief, the drunkard, and the murderer. In fact, love toward your fellowman is the very thing that distinguishes you as a Christian from an individual of the world.
