The Lord Knows the Nature of our Hearts

The old saying goes, "You can fool some of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all the people all the time." We are often very good at putting on a facade and fooling others, but we need to remember that we cannot and will not fool God. "Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, this he will also reap" (Galatians 6:7). And be sure "your sins will find you out" (Numbers 32:23). The saddest thing is that some have fooled themselves into thinking their hearts are right with God when God knows the true nature of our hearts.

God knows us and the nature of our hearts.

God's Plan of Salvation

1. Hearing the Word of God (Rom. 10:17; Acts 16:32)
2. Believe what is taught (Mark 16:16; Heb 11:6)
3. Repentance (Acts 2:38; Luke 13:3; Acts 17:30)
4. Confession (Acts 8:37; Rom. 10:9-10)
5. Baptism (1 Peter 3:21; Acts 2:38; Mark 16:16; Rom. 6:3-4)
6. After the above five steps, faithful

While King Saul ignored the true causes of his troubles, God saw everything clearly. So many of us need to do some serious introspection and consider the true nature of our hearts in humility and fear. Only when we clearly see our hearts as God sees them can we begin to understand God's will for us.

As Saul pursues David in an attempt to kill him, David is afforded an opportunity to kill Saul in a cave. Yet, even though he is encouraged to do so by his men, David refuses to "put forth mine hand against my lord; for he is the LORD'S anointed" (1 Samuel 24:10).

An important spiritual application for us to re-member is that Jesus declares those who are not with Him, are against Him (Matthew 12:30). In other words; those who are not faithfully serving the Lord are putting forth their hands against the Lord's anointed. The Lord knows our hearts and who is on the Lord's side. Are you faithful?
